

ULTIMedia expands global operations

• 13 Apr 2007

ULTIMedia, announced it has expanded operations and is opening offices in London and Dubai. This expansion comes shortly after ULTIMedia opened its operations in the United States at Rockefeller Center in New York City .

“We are committed to expanding our brand in areas where we have seen potential for growth and where we have existing clients,” said Eric Dumouchel, ULTIMedia’s founder and chief executive. “We recently established operations in the U.S.A. and plan additional expansion globally. The offices in London and Dubai are strategic locations for us.”

ULTIMedia provides turnkey self-service solutions to a multi-faceted clientele throughout the world. The expansion plan will support clients where ULTIMedia has established a customer base.

“We feel it is critical to support our clients. Having local or regional presence in London and Dubai allows ULTIMedia to be responsive to our many customers in these parts of the world,” continued Dumouchel.

The following article can be viewed here: <http://www.selfserviceworld.com/article.php?id=17489>